

Christ the King Fellowship
Presbyterian
December 24, 2021

Organ Prelude: Gloria Hosanna in Excelsis Deo
by Mark Hayes

"O Come, O Come, Emmanuel" (vs.1 & 3) Blue #9

Welcome

Lighting of the Advent Candles
*After the Christ candle has been lit:

God of grace, ever faithful to Your promises, we rejoice in hope of our Savior's coming and look forward with longing to his return. Prepare our hearts to receive him for he is Lord forever. Amen!

Trumpet: On Christmas Night All Christians Sing arr.
Christine Harmon

Praise: Emmanuel Has Come - Sandquist

He laid down His crown, put aside His glory.
He became a baby. He became a man.
He stepped off His throne to obey the Father
To become our brother, first of many sons.
Glory, glory, glory, Emmanuel has come.
Glory, glor, glory, Christ is the firstborn of many
sons.

Scripture: Luke 2:1-7

"O Little Town of Bethlehem" Blue #44

Scripture: Luke 2:8-20

"Hark! The Herald Angels Sing" Blue #31

Christmas Reading
Scripture: Isaiah 9:2-7

Trumpet: Eternal Source of Light Divine by George F.
Handel

Scripture: Titus 3:4-7

Lord's Prayer

"O Come All Ye Faithful" Blue #41

Scripture: Isaiah 52:7-10

"Joy to the World" (vs.1 & 2) Blue #40

Scripture: John 1:1-14

"Silent Night, Holy Night" Blue #60

-- Candle Lighting --

We extinguish the candles knowing we carry the light of Christ within us -- a light which can never be extinguished!

Emmanuel Has Come - Sandquist

He laid down His crown, put aside His glory.

He became a baby. He became a man.

He stepped off His throne to obey the Father

To become our brother, first of many sons.

Glory, glory, glory, Emmanuel has come.

Glory, glor, glory, Christ is the firstborn of many sons.